

Short Bio: Ashiqul Islam Akhand who has 17+ years of experience at IT industry in various roles has real life knowledge and expertise on Software Engineering. During his career at DataSoft he has played various role like Software Engineer, Technical Lead (Architect), Project Manager and SEPG. Besides working in large govt. projects, product development he has a successful track record in business relationship management and business development activities both for local and overseas market. Being experienced in project and program management for more than 11 years, he is a Process Improvement Consultant with full life cycle definition and implementation experience with models like CMMI 1.3 Development and ISO 9001:2008. He has been playing strong role around 10 years in consulting and implementing Quality and Process Improvement engagement and initiatives across several organizations of Bangladesh. He actively participated in all the steps from Gap analysis to SCAMPI A for CMMI L3. Furthermore he participated as Appraisal Team Member (ATM) for CMMI Level 5 in two organizations.